

DEFY

Introducing the latest masterpiece in our Purely Protected® collection, DEFY. A new type of pull-up leather that embodies resilience and sophistication. Thanks to Purely Protected® technology, which guards against stains and sun fading, Defy truly lives up to its name; it defies the odds. Unlike traditional pull-up leathers, it can recover from scratching by rubbing the scratch with your fingers until the scratch is blended away. Defy is an extraordinary version of a pull up leather and represents the distinctive light color burst that is revealed when pulled lightly. Selection is key to crafting Defy, and we meticulously choose either premium USA or New Zealand cowhide, ensuring the highest quality. Rich in warm colors, Defy will elevate your space where resilience and functionality converge in one timeless leather. Expect minimal color variation from hide to hide, a testament to the Purely Protected® technology. Appreciate characteristics such as scars, belly wrinkles, scratch marks, and insect bites, which are signatures only genuine leather can exhibit.
